Consolidating Determiners

1. Match the determiners to the correct type of determiner.

some	possessive
those	demonstrative
her	quantifier

VF

2. Which sentence below could be completed with the determiner 'your'?

A. Those shoes aren't _____.

B. This is _____ new bunkbed.

VF

3. Add the determiner to the sentence below.

that

May I have a slice of pizza?

VF

4. Using the words from the word bank below, create a sentence for each of the following determiners.

his this many

rabbit	old	shop
kite	toys	pet

A

5. Molly says,

The determiner in the sentence below is 'me'.

Simon let me borrow his football boots.

Is she correct? Explain your answer.

R

6. Is the underlined determiner used correctly in the sentence below?

I have not had his water today and that is why I have a headache.

Explain your reasoning.

R

© Classroom Secrets Limited 2022

Consolidating Determiners

1. Possessive – her; demonstrative – those; quantifier – some
2. B
3. May I have a slice of that pizza?
4. Various answers, for example: Jake took his pet rabbit to the vets. I bought this kite from the corner shop. She has many old toys to play with.
5. No, Molly is incorrect as the word 'me' is a pronoun and not a determiner. The correct word is 'his' as this is the only possessive determiner in the sentence.
6. No. 'his' is a possessive determiner that is used with a male character. The correct determiner for this sentence is 'my'.

© Classroom Secrets Limited 2022