

Removing 'un'

1. Remove 'un' from the words on the left and match them to the new word.

unseen

unstuck unsure unspoilt

spoilt

seen stuck

sure

VF

2. Remove 'un' from the words below and use the new words to complete the sentences.

unplug

unlock untie

I can _____ my own shoelaces.

Dad lost the key to _____ the front door.

I need to _____ in the laptop to charge it.

VF

3. Beth is removing 'un' from words with prefixes.

She says,

'Under' means below so 'der' means above.

Is Beth correct? Explain your answer.

R

Removing 'un'

1. Remove 'un' from the words on the left and match them to the new word.

unseen	spoilt
unstuck	seen unsure	stuck
unspoilt	sure

VF

2. Remove 'un' from the words below and use the new words to complete the sentences.

unplug	unlock	untie
--------	--------	-------

I can tie my own shoelaces.

Dad lost the key to lock the front door.

I need to plug in the laptop to charge it.

VF

3. Beth is removing 'un' from words with prefixes.

She says,

'Under' means below so 'der' means above.

Is Beth correct? Explain your answer.

Beth is incorrect because 'der' is not a word. You cannot remove 'un' from the word 'under'.

R