

What are Nouns?

Write five sentences. Each sentence should contain at least one proper, collective and common noun.

You may use the examples below, or you may think of your own.

Proper

Friday

Spain

Ben

May

London

Collective

shoal

bunch

crowd gaggle

batch

Common

geese

grapes

people

bread

fish

Various answers, for example:

I baked a batch of bread on Friday.

Ben bought a bunch of grapes to give to his grandma.

I saw a shoal of fish when we went on a boat trip in Spain.

We fed a gaggle of geese at the farm in May.

I got lost in a crowd of people when I was in London.