

Using 'so', 'and', 'but' and 'or'

1. Circle the conjunction needed to join each pair of sentences together.

A. I want to stay indoors. The weather is beautiful today.

but

or

B. Amir was thirsty. He got a drink of cold water.

and

so

VF

4. Arrange the cards below to create a sentence. Add a conjunction which makes sense.

baking

make

I

to enjoy

cakes

like little

I

A

2. Match each sentence below to the correct conjunction.

A. There was a traffic jam _____ I was late for school.

but

B. Ali is good at cricket _____ he is also a great swimmer.

so

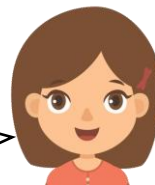

C. I love eating fruit _____ I do not like raspberries.

and

VF

5. Poppy asks,

What mistake has been made with the conjunction in the sentence below?

Would you like or some pasta would you rather have some rice?

Explain your answer.

R

3. Which sentences use the correct conjunction?

A. Kai loves riding his bike so doing tricks with his skateboard.

B. It is Saturday but I have to get up early to go to gym club.

C. We could have curry to eat tonight or we could have fish and chips.

D. I want to play in a band and I practise the guitar every day.

VF

6. Remove the conjunction from the sentence below.

Sid loves reading so he went to the library to get a new book.

Write the two sentences that were joined together.

A

Using 'so', 'and', 'but' and 'or'

1. A. but; B. so
2. A. so; B. and; C. but
3. B and C
4. Various answers, for example: I enjoy baking and I like to make little cakes.
5. The correct conjunction has been used but it isn't joining two sentences together. 'Or' should come after 'pasta' in the sentence.
6. Sid loves reading. He went to the library to get a new book.