

Questions

1. Tick the sentence below that is a question. A. I have been to school today. <input type="checkbox"/> B. When are we going to the shop? <input type="checkbox"/> C. We are going to the zoo. <input type="checkbox"/> VF	4. Maria has written the question below. Why did we need to buy all these plants? for our garden Has she used the question mark correctly? Explain how you know. R
2. Match the question to the correct answer. Why did you go inside? It was raining. There are toys outside. VF	5. Katie has asked Tom a question. What could her question have been?   What...   I had pizza and chips.   A
3. Circle the words that tell you the sentences below are questions. A. Who ate the last cookie? B. Where did you put your shoes? C. How old are you? VF	6. Create a question using the statement. Use the sentence stem to help you. You got ten gold stars. How _____ _____ Don't forget your punctuation. A

Questions

1. B
2. It was raining.
3. A. Who; B. Where; C. How
4. No she has not used the question mark correctly. Question marks are used at the end of a question instead of a full stop.
5. Various answers, for example: What did you have for tea? What did you eat at the restaurant?
6. Various answers, for example: How did you get ten gold stars?