

Consolidating the Alphabet

1. The letters in the table below are in alphabetical order. Complete the table.

Capital letter	Lower-case letter
B c D e
F

VF

4. Complete the table by writing a word and a name that would come next in the alphabet.

	Word	Name
l amb	move	Martin
d inner y olin
b ack

A

2. Write the underlined words in alphabetical order.

A. I love eating pear, kiwi and mango.

B. Grace, Alice and Billy love playing football.

VF

5. Rewrite the sentence so that the underlined children's names are in alphabetical order.

My cousins Will, Clara, Zara and Matthew are coming to play at my house.

R

3. Rewrite the names with a capital letter and put them in alphabetical order.

callum susie kevin will fatima

VF

6. Milly thinks the foods in this sentence have been written in alphabetical order.

At the local shop, we bought pasta, milk, bread, ketchup and cupcakes.

Is she correct? Explain how you know.

R

Consolidating the Alphabet

1. b, C, d, E, f
2. A: kiwi, mango, pear; B: Alice, Billy, Grace
3. Callum, Fatima, Kevin, Susie, Will
4. Various answers, for example:

	Word	Name
lamb	move	martin
dinner	egg	Ellie
violin	watch	Willow
back	cat	Connor

5. My cousins Clara, Matthew, Will and Zara are coming to play at my house.
6. Milly is incorrect. The alphabetical order is; bread, cupcakes, ketchup, milk and pasta.