

What is a Clause?

1. Which sentences are correct?

A. Cornelius bought some new books for his law course.

B. the pet shop was closed on sunday

C. Is it time to go home?

D. Look at!

VF

4. Create the two complete sentences using all the flashcards below.

you

?

dirty

.

can

wash

the now

dishes

Remember to fully punctuate each sentence.

A

2. Circle the words that are out of order in each of the following sentences.

A. The spotty, yellow hung raincoat near the door.

B. The pillow soft was place carefully on the large bed.

C. Where can I find key my?

VF

5. Sally and Ryan are reading the sentence below.

The swayed in the blue sky.

Sally

An adjective is missing.

Ryan

A noun is missing.

Who is correct? Explain why.

R

3. Complete the sentences with the correct word.

A. The conductor _____ his job because he gets to meet new people.

B. The tortoise _____ peacefully in Max's arms.

loves

talks

cries

cooks

sleeps

VF

6. Naeem is practising writing sentences.

A)	The swam dolphins happily in the ocean
B)	Josh created a 3D model for his art homework?
C)	can you turn the volume down

Explain his mistakes, then rewrite the sentences so that they are correct.

R

What is a Clause?

1. A and C
2. A. hung and raincoat; B. pillow and soft; C. key and my
3. A. loves; B. sleeps
4. Various answers, for example: You can wash the dirty dishes now. Can you wash the dirty dishes now?
5. Ryan is correct because the word to explain who the verb applies to is missing. The verb is 'swayed'. Therefore, the splat is covering a noun.
6. The mistakes in sentence A are the missing full stop and the word order. The mistake in sentence B is the incorrect punctuation mark. The mistake in sentence C is the missing capital letter and question mark. The correct sentences are: A. The dolphins swam happily in the ocean. B. Josh created a 3D model for his art homework. C. Can you turn the volume down?