What an incredibly tiring and terrifying day it was! Hidden deep in the golden, glistening sand was the scroll with my mission. I had to travel across to the large, wooden boat and find a rusty, bejewelled key on the deck first. As I travelled across the island, all I could hear was the sound of my heart beating frantically and the peaceful sways of the sea hitting the shore. The deck was recklessly stacked with dusty, old wooden boxes and to top it off it was unfortunately decorated with cobwebs. As I trawled through the boxes and searched every corner of the deck, the key was finally spotted.

I knew before I looked down I no longer looked the same as I did before I stepped onto the boat. I slowly cast my eyes down and saw I was covered in strings of webs and masses of dust. How glorious! But there was no time to waste, I needed to complete my mission and get as far away as possible from here. I hurriedly dashed to the sturdy, mahogany barrel, unlocked the key and couldn't believe what was in there. Filled to the brim were piles of jewels, pearls, golden coins and every precious diamond of the world imaginable. Trying not to be greedy, I carefully started emptying the barrel and filled the treasure chest with the precious items. It felt like the longest job ever! But once complete, I placed the key on the engraved chest and suddenly the chest disappeared. Where did it go?
