

Homework/Extension

Step 1: Recognising the Present Perfect Form in Sentences

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 3: (3G4.1b) [Use of the present perfect form of verbs instead of the simple past \[for example, He has gone out to play contrasted with He went out to play\]](#)

English Year 3: (3G4.1b) Using the present perfect form of verbs in contrast to the past tense

Differentiation:

Questions 1, 4 and 7 (Varied Fluency)

Developing Identify the sentences that are written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the KS1 statutory spelling lists.

Expected Identify the sentences that are written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling lists.

Greater Depth Identify the sentences that are written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling lists and some irregular verbs.

Questions 2, 5 and 8 (Varied Fluency)

Developing Circle the sentences that are not written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the KS1 statutory spelling lists.

Expected Circle the sentences that are not written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling lists.

Greater Depth Circle the sentences that are not written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling lists and some irregular verbs.

Questions 3, 6 and 9 (Application and Reasoning)

Developing Explain if the sentence is written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the KS1 statutory spelling lists.

Expected Explain if the sentence is written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling lists.

Greater Depth Explain if the sentence is written in the present perfect form. Includes sentences with vocabulary taken from the Year 3/4 statutory spelling lists and some irregular verbs.

More resources from our Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling scheme of work.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website

Recognising the Present Perfect Form in Sentences

1. Underline the sentences that are written in present perfect form in the postcard below.

Hi Ryan,

I am in India with my mum and dad. I have made lots of new friends here. I don't want to come back but I miss you a lot. My mum has made lots of yummy treats here, I can't wait for you to try them when we return.

Love Anita.

Ryan Grain
1 Shell Road
Bristol
BR8 3WQ

VF
HW/Ext

2. Circle the sentences that are not written in the present perfect form.

- A. When I has eaten, I can play on my scooter.
- B. The children have come to visit the zoo.
- C. Jack have picked the little bike to ride on.
- D. He has made his own breakfast.

VF
HW/Ext

3. Adam has written the sentence in present perfect form.

I has got dressed for the party.

True or false? Explain your reasoning.

AR
HW/Ext

Recognising the Present Perfect Form in Sentences

4. Underline the sentences that are written in present perfect form in the postcard below.

Hi Mason,

I am in Paris with my family. We have learnt so much about French history and the eighth century. My dad has eaten a lot since he has arrived and we have really enjoyed our time here. I will continue to write to you, I promise.

Love, Julie.

Julie Smith
4 Loyal
Road
York
YK3 9BC

VF
HW/Ext

5. Circle the sentences that are not written in the present perfect form.

- A. The man has arrived at the station very early.
- B. Where has the calendar that was in the living room?
- C. I haven't seen Amy since we worked on the science experiment together.
- D. Lucas have safely rode his bicycle down the steep hill.

VF
HW/Ext

6. Francesca has written the sentence in present perfect form.

They has walked through the island and had their picnic in the centre of the field.

True or false? Explain your reasoning.

AR
HW/Ext

Recognising the Present Perfect Form in Sentences

7. Underline the sentences that are written in present perfect form in the postcard below.

Hi Lizzie,

I can't believe I'm in America! I have always dreamt of being here and I can't actually believe that I am! I have visited all the famous landmarks including the Statue of Liberty. Although, I haven't visited the Empire State building. Our tour guide has a strange accent, it really isn't an American accent. The people of America have been surprisingly pleasant. I will write to you soon and don't forget I will be back on the eighth.

Love Christian.

Lizzie Dennis
6 Court Street
London
SR8 9VP

VF
HW/Ext

8. Circle the sentences that are not written in the present perfect form.

- A. The library have been closed as a fourteenth century book has disappeared but no one knew where it was.
- B. Have you seen any thrilling movies recently? I don't remember the last electrifying film I watched.
- C. On this particular occasion, I have chosen to wear my favourite jumper that was given to me by my grandad.
- D. Perhaps it would has been better to guide the animals to the field rather than letting them roam around freely.

VF
HW/Ext

9. Iraj has written the sentence in present perfect form.

“Has you ever tried a dragon fruit?” Kim asked Robin out of interest.

“No I hasn't ever tried a dragon fruit,” Robin replied.

True or false? Explain your reasoning.

AR
HW/Ext

Homework/Extension

Recognising the Present Perfect Form in Sentences

Developing

1. I have made lots of new friends here. My mum has made lots of yummy treats here, I can't wait for you to try them when we return.
2. A and C
3. False, he has used the incorrect auxiliary verb. The correct sentence is: I have got dressed for the party.

Expected

4. We have learnt so much about French history and the eighth century. My dad has eaten a lot since he has arrived and we have really enjoyed our time here.
5. B and D
6. False, she has used the incorrect auxiliary verb. The correct sentence is: They have walked through the island and had their picnic in the centre of the field.

Greater Depth

7. I have always dreamt of being here and I can't actually believe that I am! I have visited all the famous landmarks including the Statue of Liberty. Although, I haven't visited the Empire State building. Our tour guide has a strange accent, it really isn't an American accent. The people of America have been surprisingly pleasant.
8. A and D
9. False, she has used the incorrect auxiliary verb. The correct sentence is: "Have you ever tried a dragon fruit?" Kim asked Robin out of interest.
"No I haven't ever tried a dragon fruit," Robin replied.