9. Luqman has written the passage below. He thinks the sequencing of the sentences is correct.

There wasn't a chance in the world she was fishing those out, so all that was left was to find another way of getting to the interview. The morning started with a late wake-up call because she pressed snooze a few too many times. Immediately realising the time, she frantically started getting ready. She sprinted towards her car while shoving pieces of stale fruit in her mouth. Due to the chaos, she dropped her keys which landed straight into the dirty gutter.

Do you agree? Explain your reasoning and amend any mistakes.

Homework/Extension Sequencing Sentences

Developing

1. B
2. B; A; C
3. No, I disagree because Nathan has been introduced in the last sentence whereas he should've been introduced in the first sentence. The passage should be written as:
Nathan wanted to improve his football skills because he wanted to play professionally. For his training, he ran on the cold, grassy field. He learnt many new skills during his training.

Expected

4. A
5. C; A; B; D
6. No, I disagree because the sentences are not in the correct order so the passage does not make sense. The passage should be written as:
Marco was in possession of his grandma's last piece of art. In order to give it the honour it deserves, he wanted to find the perfect place for it. He measured the height and length of the canvas and bought a shatterproof frame for it. He then placed it proudly in the entrance of his house.

Greater Depth

7. A
8. D; B; C; A
9. No, I disagree because the order of the events is incorrect. The text is would work best written in time order, from the moment she wakes up:
The morning started with a late wake-up call because she pressed snooze a few too many times. Immediately realising the time, she frantically started getting ready. She sprinted towards her car while shoving pieces of stale fruit in her mouth. Due to the chaos, she dropped her keys which landed straight into the dirty gutter. There wasn't a change in the world she was fishing those out, so all that was left was to find another way of getting to the interview.
