

Sequencing Sentences

Sequence the sentences below to create a paragraph. Create a sentence of your own to add anywhere into the paragraph.

The elephants were grazing by the watering hole whilst the giraffes crunched their way through the leaves.

As the sun began to set, the animals began to turn towards home.

The African savannah was brimming with life.

Soon, the watering hole was filled with silence.

The African savannah was brimming with life.

The elephants were grazing by the watering hole whilst the giraffes crunched their way through the leaves.

The giraffe calves were hiding behind their mothers' legs afraid of the sights and sounds surrounding them.

As the sun began to set, the animals began to turn towards home.

Soon, the watering hole was filled with silence.

The African savannah was brimming with life. The elephants were grazing by the watering hole whilst the giraffes crunched their way through the leaves. The giraffe calves were hiding behind their mothers' legs afraid of the sights and sounds surrounding them. As the sun began to set, the animals began to turn towards home. Soon, the watering hole was filled with silence.