

Root Words, Prefixes and Suffixes

Xelicon the alien wants to learn about prefixes and suffixes. He's got the function machines below.

Create three different words for each machine. At least of the two words must include a prefix and suffix. Write a sentence with each of the words you have created.

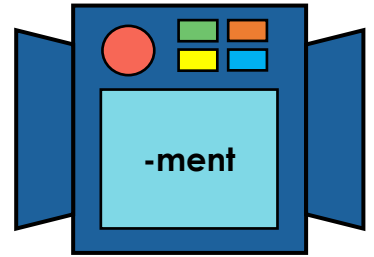

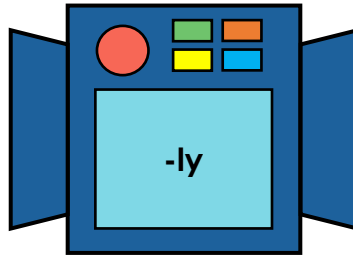

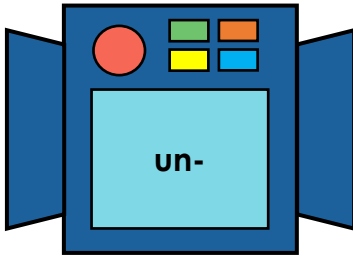

A large green-bordered box containing 18 horizontal lines for writing.

Root Words, Prefixes and Suffixes

Xelicon the alien wants to learn about prefixes and suffixes. He's got the function machines below.

Create three different words for each machine. At least of the two words must include a prefix and suffix. Write a sentence with each of the words you have created.

Various answers, for example: unclear, unfortunately, unfriendly, carefully, accidentally, evenly, apartment, treatment, engagement

Even though Mrs Campbell spent 20 minutes explaining the task, Evie was unclear about what she needed to do.

Unfortunately, Julie couldn't attend the university open day because she injured her leg during her rugby match.

Fatima moved into her new house and introduced herself to her neighbours, whom she thought were very unfriendly.

Lucy carefully put her baby in the cot and quietly exited the room.

Megan was devastated when she accidentally knocked the ice sculpture her mum created for her client's 60th birthday.

Ayaz distributed his cake evenly amongst his guests.

Cristiano bought his mum the penthouse apartment with all his savings.

Priya was looking forward to her well-deserved spa treatment after a very stressful week.

Despite planning all the details of her engagement, Rosa was still frantically running around managing the events of the day.