

Identifying Paragraphs

1. True or false? The sentences below can be grouped together.

Leo was a very friendly rabbit.

He would spend most of his days either eating or sleeping.

Every morning, he looked forward to his delicious carrot.

When Leo was hungry, he would munch on the fresh hay in his cage.

VF

4. Write another sentence that could belong to the group of sentences below.

It was George's first camping trip.

He was very excited about it.

His mum had bought a new tent.

It was black with a white stripe.

A

2. Number the sentences below so that they are in an order that makes sense.

Charlie loved baking.

He owned a little baker's shop in the middle of the village.

Every day, he would leap out of bed to go to work.

People would come from all over just to try his cakes.

VF

5. Liam has written the sentences below.

The beach was beautiful. The sand was hot under my feet and the sea was crystal clear.

He says,

I could add the sentence 'I love the summer' and it would fit with the sentences I already have.

Is he correct? Convince me.

R

3. Sort the sentences into the table below, based on their theme.

character	setting

A. The fields were full of daffodils.

B. She had long, curly blonde hair.

C. The cave was dark and damp.

D. The dog ran across the road.

VF

6. Georgia has grouped the sentences below.

She was a nurse at the local hospital, helping poorly people to get better. My mum loved her job. Sometimes she would work nights and we wouldn't see her, but we were proud of her for looking after others. I always smiled when other people asked me what she did for work.

What mistake has she made?

R

Identifying Paragraphs

1. True

2.

Charlie loved baking.	1
He owned a little baker's shop in the middle of the village.	3
Every day, he would leap out of bed just to go to work.	2
People would come from all over just to try his cakes.	4

(Sentences 2 and 3 can be swapped)

3.

character	setting
B, D	A, C

4. Various answers, for example: All his friends would be excited to sleep in it!

5. Liam is correct. The word 'hot' suggests that it is summer time because that is when we usually have the warmest temperatures.

6. Georgia has mixed up the order of the first two sentences. 'My mum loves her job' would explain who 'she' is.