

Consolidating Determiners

1. Complete the sentence so that it makes sense.

Joe has to creep through an _____ forest to reach the _____ cabin.

wooden

caravan

overgrown

luscious

VF

4. Complete the sentence below so that it uses an indefinite article and add detail so that it makes sense.

Olivia loves to read _____ book _____

A

2. Fill in the blanks using 'the', 'a' or 'an'.

A. Last winter, we had _____ icicle hanging off _____ roof of our shed.

B. I found _____ coin on _____ pavement.

C. Mum gave me _____ egg sandwich and _____ banana for my lunch.

VF

5. Explain how the use of the underlined articles affect the meaning of the sentences below.

Dan played the game on his console.

Dan played a game on his console.

R

3. Underline any errors in the sentence below.

Yesterday, a alien landed on an school playing field in the silver spaceship.

VF

6. Using the words below, create a sentence that uses one definite article and one indefinite article.

unwell

hamster

A

Consolidating Determiners

1. overgrown; wooden (accept luscious)
2. A. an, the; B. a, the; C. an, a
3. Yesterday a alien landed on an school playing field in the (could be accepted) silver spaceship.
4. Various answers, for example: Olivia loves to read a book before she goes to sleep.
5. The first sentence uses a definite article and shows that Dan played a specific game. The second sentence uses an indefinite article and shows Dan plays a game but does not specify which one.
6. Various answers, for example: Barry found an unwell hamster and took it to the vets.