The class were excited! The children were allowed to play at the park for the afternoon. Frankie ran straight to the swing because it was his favourite activity at the playground. He loved to swing as high as he could. Esa showed great determination when practising his skateboarding skills. However, Milly, who was a much quieter child, preferred to spend her time using the chawks to draw a picture. Helen was skipping behind Milly, being careful not to hit her with the skipping rope.
