

Identifying Verbs in Sentences

1. Label the boxes with V (verb), CN (concrete noun) or AN (abstract noun).

In the jungle, the tigers stalked their prey in hope of catching their next meal.

VF

4. Taj has underlined the verb in the sentence below.

Mum put a cover over the salad to keep the flies away.

Is he correct?
Explain how you know?

R

2. Identify whether the underlined word in each sentence below is a noun or a verb.

A. Make sure you lock the door before you go out.

B. The teacher asked us to stand behind our chairs.

C. I sharpened my pencil until it had a fine point.

VF

5. Write a sentence about the picture below including three different types of noun.

Label each noun type in your sentence.

A

3. Sort the underlined words in the sentence below into the table.

The crowd gathered in the street to share the joy of the queen's birthday.

Collective noun	Abstract noun	Verb

VF

6. Write two different sentences using the word below.

circle

One sentence should use the word as a noun and the other should use the word as a verb.

A

Identifying Verbs in Sentences

1. In the jungle, the tigers stalked their prey in hope of catching their next meal.

↑
CN

↑
CN

↑
V

↑
CN

↑
AN

↑
V

↑
CN

2. A. verb; B. verb; C. noun

3.

Collective noun	Abstract noun	Verb
crowd	joy birthday	gathered share

4. Taj is incorrect because in the sentence, the word 'cover' is a concrete noun as it is naming an object that can be touched.

5. Various answers, for example: Shaking with fear (abstract noun), the boy (concrete noun) cautiously opened the door (concrete noun), which revealed a colony (collective noun) of bats (concrete noun).

6. Various answers, for example: Please draw a circle using the compass; Circle the odd one out.