

Consolidating Relative Clauses

1. Underline the personal pronouns in the sentences below.

A. When the children were told they were going on a school trip, the cheer was deafening.

B. After Lewis hit the ball, it flew into the bushes and he had to search to find it.

C. We discovered some old photographs in the loft and stuck them in a photo album.

VF

4. Lacy has been reading the sentence below.

Tessa and Cara put the gel pens in their pencil case, but Jack wanted them in his.

She says,

I think the underlined pronoun is referring to Tessa and Cara.

Is she correct? Explain your answer.

R

2. Tick the sentence(s) that include a personal pronoun and a possessive pronoun.

A. Her dress was floaty with butterflies on the front.

B. Paul knew that the ball was mine and I wanted it back.

C. As the teacher explained what had happened, he knew the fault was his.

VF

5. Winston is using pronouns to replace nouns.

	The scouts hiked for most of the weekend
	with the driving rain
	in them faces.

Explain his mistake.

R

3. Rewrite the sentence below using the correct pronouns for the underlined nouns or noun phrases.

Despite the rain, I went to the park with my friends where my friends played on the swings but I stayed under the slide until the rain stopped.

it

they

them

VF

6. Add another sentence using a pronoun to refer to Jenny.

Jenny knocked on Layla's door.

A

Consolidating Relative Clauses

1. A. When the children were told they were going on a school trip, the cheer was deafening.
B. After Lewis hit the ball, it flew into the bushes and he had to search to find it.
C. We discovered some old photographs in the loft and stuck them in a photo album.

2. B and C

Despite the rain, I went to the park with my friends where they played on the swings but I stayed under the slide until it stopped.

4. Lacy is incorrect. The pronoun 'them' refers to the gel pens in the pencil case.
5. Winston has used the incorrect pronoun before 'faces'. He should have used the possessive pronoun 'their' because the faces belong to the scouts.
6. Various answers, for example: She wanted to ask Layla to come over for dinner.