

The number _____ is represented by the letter
_____.

The minute hand will be at _____ when it is _____ o'clock.

The minute hand will be at _____ when it is half past _____.

The minute hand points to _____ on the hour.

The minute hand points to _____ when it is half past the hour.

I know it is the hour hand because...

I know it is the minute hand because...

15 minutes past can also be said as _____ past.

15 minutes to can also be said as _____ to.

To reach 60, we need to add _____.

It is _____ minutes past the hour.

It is _____ minutes to the next hour.

A new day starts at _____.

In the morning, _____ takes place.

In the afternoon, _____ takes place.

Noon is _____ o'clock.

There are _____ minutes in 1 hour.

There are _____ hours in 1 day.

There are _____ months in 1 year.

There are _____ days in a leap year.

There are _____ seconds in a minute.

I can work out the start time by...

I can work out the end time by...

_____ minutes and _____ seconds is equal to _____ seconds.

There are _____ days in 1 week.

There are _____ seconds in _____ minutes.

There are _____ hours in _____ days.

There are _____ days in _____ weeks.

There are _____ minutes to the next hour.

The total time taken is equal to _____ minutes.

The total time taken is equal to _____ hours.

There are _____ minutes between _____ o'clock to _____ o'clock.

_____ took the shortest time to complete.

_____ took the longest time to complete.

_____ is longer than _____ because...

_____ is shorter than _____ because...

